MEMORANDUM FOR: Editorial Board, Studies in Intelligence

FROM:

 Director, Center for the Study of Intelligence

SUBJECT: Minutes of the Board Meeting, 2-3 October 1987

1. The Studies in Intelligence Editorial Board met Friday evening and Saturday morning, 2-3 October 1987,

Present were Miss Boatner,

Maloney,

2. Miss Boatner called the meeting to order at 7:30 p.m. The minutes of the 12-13 June meeting were discussed, and answered a question about the function of the Interdirectorate Seminar referred to in the minutes. It was agreed that the Board members should be sent a copy of the schedule for the coming year. The minutes were approved.

3. Miss Boatner said that DDI Representative had asked if we could send copies of Studies This was done until three years ago, and we should reinstate the practice. Instead of a blanket dissemination, it was agreed that it would be better to have a dissemination list that includes only those with a reason to see the publication. will give us such a list 25X1 with contributions from and Mr. Maloney.

4. There will be an Awards Ceremony for those contributors receiving cash awards for significant articles published in 1987 on 16 October at 2:30 in the DCI Conference Room.

5. The Board gave its approval for the annual Christmas reception honoring contributors to Studies in 1987. This will be held on Tuesday, 8 December, in the Executive Dining Room.

6. Miss Boatner reported that she had used CIA letterhead notepaper in sending out copies of the special issue of the journal commemorating the Bicentennial of the Constitution. She has ordered paper imprinted with "Studies in Intelligence" and the logo to use in the future.

7. Miss Boatner reported that she had had a visit from someone who felt that the journal had suffered recently from inadequate proofreading. He gave her several examples of the sort of mistakes he had found. She said these errors are "cumulatively bothersome" and something we need to worry about.

8. Article ideas were next considered. Five articles were dropped, and 22 were added. Some of the ideas were considered suitable for a "time capsule" to be published at a later date because of their current sensitivity.

From Miss Boatner:

--Mr. Carlucci's speech of 25 September on the importance of people to policy (Miss Boatner)

--[redacted] and the current intelligence process

From [redacted]
--The "snatch" of a suspect abroad for prosecution in this country (Dewey Clarridge) (For "time capsule")

--Iran-contra: Various threads and ramifications

--Training overseas for personal security

From [redacted]
--What is wrong with the recruitment pipeline?

--Summary memo on Japanese hi-tech symposium

From Mr. Maloney:

--Crisis Communications Center

--SAFE Project history

--Private commercial overhead photography

From

--S&T histories and stories such as the U-2

urged the Board to consider reprinting under one cover the several pieces published over the years on the estimative process.

There was Board consensus that there is "much mileage" to be gotten from interviews with those who were part of CIA in its earlier days. Many of these interviews would be suitable for inclusion in the "time capsule."

9. The meeting was recessed at 9:00 until Saturday morning.

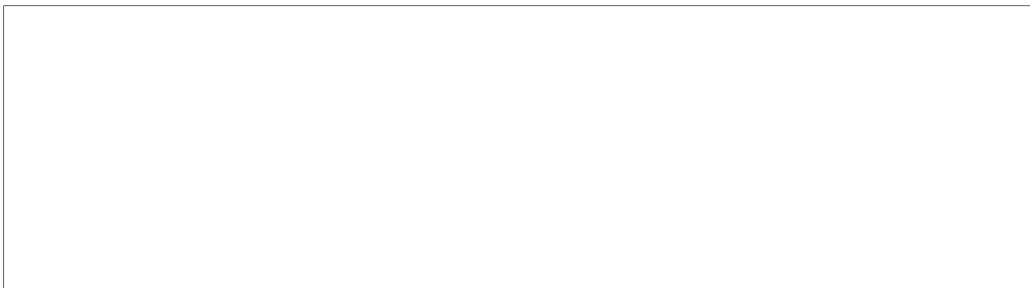

10. The Board resumed its deliberations at 8:00 a.m. Saturday with consideration of draft submissions. It was decided to publish:
